

April 13, 2011

1221 Brickell lands Lydecker Diaz

By Oscar Pedro Musibay

Law firm Lydecker Diaz is moving into 23,000 square feet at 1221 Brickell Ave.

Lydecker Diaz, which includes former Miami Mayor Manny Diaz as senior partner, has grown from 40 to more than 60 attorneys in the past three years.

“Lydecker Diaz has called downtown Miami home for more than a decade, so we’re very familiar with the tremendous business opportunities that the burgeoning urban core has to offer,” said Diaz, in a statement.

Lydecker’s current operations at 1201 Brickell Avenue Tower occupy about 18,000 square feet.

Terranova Corp director of acquisitions Ryan Grindler represented Lydecker Diaz, with Scott Strickland of Jones Lang LaSalle representing the building’s owners Equity Office Properties Trust and UK-based PRUPRIM.

The Lydecker Diaz news comes as 1450 Brickell announces that Berger Singerman is relocating to an entire floor in its building.

Former Miami Mayor Manny Diaz is a senior partner at Lydecker Diaz, which has grown from 40 to 60 attorneys in the past three years.